

news →

EDITION 2 → OCTOBER 2020

IRST AGM and Networking Event

IRST held its Annual General Meeting and Networking Event on 15 September 2020 at the RACV Apartment Hotel in Hobart.

Justice Iain Ross, President of the Fair Work Commission, was our keynote speaker and provided valuable insights into the workings of the Fair Work Commission during the COVID-19 pandemic. The event was well-attended and we look forward to providing more networking events in the future.

We are pleased to report that IRST is now an Incorporated Association.

IRST is affiliated with the Australian Labour and Employment Relations Association (ALERA) and this provides a national perspective and opportunities for members, particularly in relation to CPD.

We would like to congratulate Neroli Ellis (President), Craig Green (Vice-President), David Dilger (Treasurer), Jane Fitton (Secretary), Natalie Jones (committee member), James Eddington (committee member), and Abbey George (committee) for their appointments to the IRST committee for the 2020/21 financial year.

IRST Membership Fees 2020/21

We wish to advise that due to the COVID-19 pandemic, individual and corporate IRST membership fees for 2020 will be extended until 2021. This means that you or your organisation will not be required to pay IRST membership fees for 2021.

Complimentary CPD Online Webinar

We are delighted to announce that as IRST members, you are invited to attend the following online CPD webinar:

Cooperative Workplaces Symposium

Tuesday, 13 October 2020, 9am – 2.30pm (AEDT)

Wednesday, 14 October 2020, 9am – 2pm (AEDT)

The Fair Work Commission in partnership with Macquarie University presents a Symposium on Cooperative Workplaces.

Participants will hear perspectives on cooperative workplaces from employer and union parties, leading Australian and international academics and practitioners and parties to the Commission's New Approaches Program.

Registration link: <https://event.mq.edu.au/cooperative-workplaces-symposium/registration/Site/Register>

Please keep an eye out for future CPD events on our website.
Thank you for your continued support of IRST